“SONGWRITER’S GROUP”
Monday, September 14, 2009
to Monday, November 2, 2009

With Professional Songwriter Rod Padgett

Songwriting is a craft. It’s not dissimilar to carpentry. Anyone can be taught to write a song. It is a learned skill. Writing a great song is the point in which talent comes to bear. If you have an interest in the craft of songwriting, please join Rod Padgett at the Leesburg Center for the Arts this winter for a weekly workshop/community as we learn and grow together.

Rod has taught songwriting for many years to students of many ages and musical backgrounds. Rod has had songs recorded on 4 continents. He has worked in every genre both as a writer, a studio session player, and as a producer. The workshop is a hands-on group learning experience.

Workshop hours are 6:30pm to 8:30pm each week.
Registration is limited to the first 10 paid participants.
This workshop is $200 for the 8 week session.
